

REGARDLESS of the fact that each year there are a number of debutantes in Honolulu society, a debutante ball is a thing seldom heard of. Society matrons will introduce several dainty maids this year and it is hoped that some of them will be presented in a somewhat formal way.

Perhaps one of the reasons for the absence of these functions is that many of the young girls go into society at a rather early age. In the east and in the west some of the smartest affairs of the season are the balls and teas given for the debutantes. All of the social leaders are bidden to the functions which as a rule follow a whirl of teas, dinners and dances.

Honolulu is noted all over the world for its wealth and reports of many of the social functions here are printed in the eastern papers. Hostesses here are known to be as gracious as and even more gracious than many who entertain lavishly on the mainland. Why not then let their ways be as advanced as those of society matrons abroad.

Another thing in Honolulu society that is conspicuous by its absence is the week-end party. There is seldom a week that an eastern paper does not give a detailed account of several delightful house parties. Residents of Honolulu have the majority of them at least, country homes almost "as mansion-like" as their town houses. During the greater part of the winter these homes are vacant when they might well be used for week end gayeties.

In speaking of the coming festivities of the social season a writer for the New York Times tells of the reform of the dance. Social leaders there have abolished the "rag," "bunny hug," "Arizona Anguish" and the rest of the displeasing dances, and the graceful minuet and waltz will again be favored. Honolulu on the contrary is just waking up to the fact that these queer dances exist and there are now a few dances where the waltz and two-step prevail. A few of the girls have refused thus far to learn any of the dances that demand contortions but indications are that even they will soon give in or stop dancing, for the grown-up people have introduced the rag into their ball rooms. As a rule Honolulu is alive and awake to every thing that is advanced, and the question may well be asked, why not follow the advice of those who are experienced and abolish these queer gyrations?

Armour-Robbins Wedding Solemnized

Saint Andrew's Cathedral was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday night when Miss Agnes Armour became the bride of Mr. Mark Robbins. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion with ropes of white and snow-white asters. The bride, who entered the cathedral upon the arm of her cousin, Mr. Robert Shingle, wore a handsome gown of white princess lace combined with satin. It was fashioned after the new transparent modes. Little knots of chiffon were daintily arranged on the skirt and on the long court train which served to add a bit of height to the dainty bride. The bridal veil was fastened to a bouffant cap of rose point lace and was caught with the traditional orange blossom. The bridal bouquet was an exquisite shower of brides roses. Mrs. Robert Shingle who was matron of honor was gown in a clinging creation of pale pink charmeuse satin ornamented with bugles. She wore a large portrait hat of folds of pink chiffon and faced with black velvet. The only trimming was a huge black aligrette. Mrs. Shingle carried a shower of pink roses.

The young bride was given into the keeping of Mr. Robbins by Mr. Robert Shingle. Mr. Walter Rycroft supported the bridegroom. Mr. Edmund Hedemann, Mr. George Fuller, Mr. Percy Deverill, Mr. Sam Walker, Mr. Robt. McCorriston, and Mr. Charles Stillman served as ushers. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rt. Reverend Henry Bond Restarick. The wedding which took place at eight o'clock was followed by a reception at the Colonial hotel at half after eight. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson with the Princess Kawananakoa, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shingle, Mrs. Selva Shingle, and Mr. and Mrs. Mark P. Robinson stood before a background of bamboo and mallet and received the guests who gathered at the hotel to congratulate them. The Colonial which is in itself beautiful was abloom with pink roses whose fragrance was wafted to the lawn by the gentle breezes. The spacious grounds were lighted with quantities of Japanese lanterns. Here the guests were served dainty refreshments at the small tables.

The bride and groom remained at the hotel for some time and then amid a shower of rice and good wishes sped away in an auto. In the early part of next week they will depart for the mainland and will return to Honolulu after the first of the year.

Mrs. Robinson has lived in Honolulu for nearly two years and has been a favorite in the social circles. She is a cousin of Mr. Robert Shingle and has been entertained at the Shingle home. Mr. Robinson is a son of Mr. Mark P. Robinson and is well known in business as well as social circles of the islands.

Mrs. Alexander Lindsay, Jr.'s, Afternoon Tea

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the informal tea given by Mrs. Alexander Lindsay yesterday afternoon at her home in Manoa for Mrs. Wing, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robbins B. Anderson. This function is the first of the fall teas. Autumn flowers were used in the decorations and the whole effect was extremely pleasing. The drawing room, where the guests were received by Mrs. William Whitney and Mrs. John Erdman, was abloom with yellow flowers. Large jardinières filled with yellow chrysanthemums and yellow lilies were artistically placed about the room and branches of Golden Rod and chrysanthemums decorated the hall way. The dining room, where the tea was served, was done in pink and green. The color scheme here was carried out in the refreshments. The large table in the center of the room had for its centerpiece a huge basket filled with delicate pink roses and maidenhair fern and draped with green tulle. Vases of American Beauty roses were also placed about the room. Red and green formed the color scheme for the larder and was developed with masses of fish-tail ferns and large baskets of Hawaiian holly berries.

An air of informality reigned, and the eight or more guests who called during the afternoon lingered long in conversation.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. E. White Sutton, Mrs. M. F. Prosser, Mrs. Charles Hemmenway and Mrs. Frank Dillingham. During the afternoon Mrs. L. Tenney Peck sang several solos and Mrs. William W. Whitney played a number of piano selections. The invited guests included Mrs. Wing, Mrs. Robbins B. Anderson, Mrs. Charles R. Hemmenway, Mrs. Frank Dillingham, Mrs. William Whitney, Mrs. E. White Sutton, Mrs. John Erdman, Mrs. M. F. Prosser, Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, Mrs. Arthur Berg, Mrs. Frank Andrade, Mrs. Louis Warren, the Misses Gillet, Mrs. Kenneth Barnes, Mrs. M. M. Graham, Mrs. Montague Cooke, Mrs. Frederick Klamp, Mrs. R. J. Buchly, Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Miss Nora Sturgeon, Mrs. Henry Bond Restarick, Miss Margaret Restarick, Mrs. Albert A. Long, Mrs. Ernest Mott-Smith, Mrs. James Cockburn, Mrs. Eckhart, Mrs. W. L. Stanley, Mrs. W. A. Love, Miss Mary Moore, Mrs. H. M. von Holt, Miss Marybeth Holt, Mrs. Arthur G. Smith, Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. A. A. Young, Miss Young, Mrs. C. C. von Hamm, Mr. Alfred Castle, Mrs. J. W. Waldron, the Misses Jordan, Mrs. Winnifred Babbitt, Mrs. George Rodiek, Mrs. Spencer Bowen, Mrs. Malcolm McIntyre, Mrs. A. W. T. Bottomley, Mrs. C. M. V. Forster, Mrs. Frank Blake, Mrs. F. M. Swanzy, Miss Nora Swan-zy, Mrs. Wilfred Greenwell, Mrs. Ernest Ross, Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mrs. Walter Frear, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mrs. C. H. Cooke, Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey, Mrs. Frederick D. Lowrey, Mrs. A. Lewis, Miss Marion Scott, Mrs. James Wilder, Mrs. S. M. Brown, Mrs. C. G. Ballentine, Mrs. Benjamin Marx, Mrs. A. B. Ingalls, Mrs. Robert Lange, Mrs. Charles Weight, Mrs. H. M. Hepburn, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Mrs. Robert Catton, Jr., Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., Mrs. Mary Gunn, Mrs. J. Walker, Mrs. Bruce Mackall, Mrs. Vida Thrum, Miss Margaret Clarke, Mrs. Hobdy and Mrs. Robert Norris.

Miss Bertha Young's Dinner Dance

Miss Bertha Young was hostess at an elaborate dinner dance last evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alexander Young. The affair was given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. McNab, Mrs. Howard and Mr. Armiger Dredge, who are visiting with Mrs. Young.

The color scheme for the decorations was blue and pink and was developed with pink roses and blue and pink tulle. The guests were seated at five round tables on the large lanai. The centerpiece for each of the tables was an artistic arrangement of delicate pink roses. The ceiling was mostly covered with asparagus plumosus and from it were draped graceful streamers of pink and blue tulle. Large green hanging baskets from which shone the electric lights, were arranged on the lanai. Corsage bouquets of baby pink roses and delicate blue hydrangeas were given to each of the ladies. The hand-painted place cards were little French bow knots tinted with pink and blue water colors.

Mrs. Howard wore a handsome gown of white charmeuse satin. Mrs. McNab was stunning in an exquisite gown of heavy lace over orchid satin. Miss Bertha Young was gown in a delicate shade of blue charmeuse satin.

Kaala's Quintet Club furnished the music for the dinner and for the dancing that followed it. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. McNab, Mrs. Howard and Mr. Armiger Dredge, the guests of honor; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. von Hamm, Mrs. Brodero, Mr. and Mrs. Winnifred Babbitt, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilder, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, Miss Marion Scott, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Rose Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Young, Dr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Robert Atkinson, Mr. Walter Macfarlane, Mr. William Roth, Mr. George Fuller, Dr. Cooper, Mr. Harry Cobb, Mr. Guy Macfarlane, Mr. Vernon Tenney and Mr. Charles Herbert and the hostess.

Juvenile Bostonians

Letters to Honolulu friends from the popular little Bostonians, contain the information that they are busy, happy, and eagerly looking forward to a return to Honolulu. From Edmonton, Patsy Henry, the dainty little comedienne, writes: "We had our first snow storm last Monday. Doesn't that make you shiver? It did us, for our fur coats were snugly packed away in our trunks and sent ahead to Witskiwin." Patsy also tells of a duck shoot arranged for the company by some of their admirers in the northland and as it was a first experience, the little girls looked on while the real shooting was in progress, afterwards the guns were loaded and, according to Miss Pat: "We were allowed to shoot at papers and tin cans, and of course they instantly got under covers, and let me tell you that the heels of the irrepressible Maud weren't in it with the way that double-barrelled shotgun kicked."

The Bostonians are exceedingly popular in Calgary, as they blazed the trail there a few years ago. Mrs. Lang has made some changes in her company in Ellensburg, and her marriage to a young business man there will take place in the near future; her place is taken in the casts by Flo Myling.

HOST AND HOSTESS AND GUESTS AT THE ELABORATE BECKLEY LUAU

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE C. BECKLEY entertained a large number of guests last Saturday evening at their home on Beretania avenue, the event celebrating the eighteenth birthday of the hostess as well as the christening of their three-weeks-old child.

Dixie White, from last accounts, was happy over having met Amelia Bingham, now on the Orpheum circuit presenting "Big Moments from Great Plays." And, writes Dixie, "you may know that she is great, but away from the shop she is delightful; and she has the darlings' wink." It will be remembered that Dixie has a fascinating wink all her own when impersonating the debonaire Irish lad who never fails to set the girlish hearts in the audience aflutter, and off the stage Miss Alice White is as charming a young girl as one would wish to meet.

And so it goes on down the line. Miss Thom Hellen's many friends will be glad to know that she is winning new laurels each time the public hears her sweet soprano voice. Miss Hellen is a society girl who is on the stage for the very love of it, and her rendering of "Mona" and "My Wild Irish Rose" will not soon be forgotten by Honolulu playgoers. Miss Billie has a little sister in the company now and a girl swimming expert and fancy diver has also been added to Mother Lang's coterie of sweet, beautiful girls.

Mr. Dewitt Alexander Entertains

Mr. Dewitt Alexander is entertaining a number of his social friends at a swimming and dancing party this evening at the Damon Home at Wai-iki. About thirty young folks are invited.

Dancing Club Entertains

A most enjoyable dance was given by the Thursday Evening Dancing Club at the Outrigger Club on Thursday evening. Besides the regular members of the club there were a number of guests present. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bierbach, Mr. and Mrs. Bon, Mr. and Mrs. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Brown, Mr. and Mrs. S. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. John Lennox, Mr. and Mrs. William Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Heiser, Mr. and Mrs. George Angus, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gere, Professor and Mrs. Arthur Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Gill, Miss Dorothy

Wood, Miss Grace, Miss Paris, Miss Pratt, Mr. Lindemann, Judge Perry, Mr. C. D. Wright, Mr. Patton, Mr. Roscoe Perkins, Mr. Grace, Mr. Moore, Mr. George McElwaine, Jr., Shirley Eush, Mr. Starrett, Mr. Soucens and Mr. George Cassidy and others.

Mrs. Alexis Gignoux' Sewing Tea

Mrs. C. G. Heiser and the Misses Watkins were the guests of honor at a delightfully informal sewing tea on Wednesday afternoon at which Mrs. Alexis J. Gignoux was hostess. The Misses Watkins are the guests of Mrs. C. G. Heiser. Among those present were the Misses Watkins, Mrs. C. G. Heiser, Mrs. A. M. Moore, Mrs. R. L. Clark, Mrs. David Thrum, Mrs. Frank Dillingham, Mrs. Marston Campbell, Mrs. George G. Guild, Mrs. William Jameson, Mrs. Mathew Graham, Mrs. Kenneth Barnes, Mrs. J. A. Johnson, Miss Lindsay, Mrs. Malcolm McIntyre, Mrs. Louis J. Warren and Miss Helen Watkins.

Mrs. Johnson's Card Party

Mrs. Gerald Johnson was hostess at an informal card party on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Matlock avenue. The prizes, Filipino luncheon sets, were given to Mrs. McAfee and Miss Sarah Lucas. Among those present were Mrs. Kirby Smith, Miss Sarah Lucas, Miss McAfee, Mrs. J. F. Speedy, Miss Betty Case, Mrs. McAfee, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Ethel Spalding, Miss Edith Cowles, Mrs. Hannum, Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Gerald Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ranney Scott's Dance

Mr. Richard Wright who will shortly leave for the coast was the guest of honor at an informal dance on Thursday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. Ranney Scott at the Harry Whitney place at Kaalawai. The house was prettily decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. Among those present were Mr. Richard Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Judge and Mrs. William Whitney, Miss Marion Scott, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Prosser, Mrs. Rine, Judge and Mrs. Alexander Lindsay Jr., Mr. Harry Whitney, Mr. Robbins Anderson, Mr. William Roth, Judge Arthur Wilder, General Macomb, Lieutenant Andrews, Robert Atkinson, Mr. Sam Wilder, Dr. Cooper, and Mr. and Mrs. Ranney Scott.

Miss Hoffman Entertains

Miss Florence Hoffman is entertaining at a sachet shower this afternoon at her home on Kewalo street, for Miss Ethel Spalding who is to be one of the November brides. The sachets will be made into a shower with fluffy maiden hair fern and gauze ribbon. The afternoon will be spent playing games for prizes which are sachet coat hangers. Miss Renay Catton is to help Miss Hoffman receive her guests. The rooms at Miss Hoffman's home are to be decorated in pink begonias and white shasta daisies. The invited guests are: Miss Ethel Spalding, Mrs. Chester Livingstone, Miss Muriel Howatt, Miss Nora Sturgeon, Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mrs. Howard Ellis, Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Miss Sarah Kucaas, Miss Callie Lucas, Miss Betty Case, Mrs. George Angus, Miss Margaret Waterhouse, Miss Rennie Catton, Miss Edith Cowles, Miss Wisner, Miss Helen Gilvin, Miss Harriet Young, Miss Gemma Wadman, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Mrs. Adams, Miss Myra Angus, Miss Julia McStocker, Mrs. McAfee, Miss McAfee, Mrs. Rose Herbert, Miss Dorothy Wood of Philadelphia.

Admiral and Mrs. Cowles' Dinner Party

Admiral and Mrs. Walter C. Cowles entertained at a prettily appointed dinner last evening at their home on Wilner avenue. The table centerpiece was a pretty arrangement of white chrysanthemums and maiden hair ferns. Covers were laid for fourteen including Mrs. Francis Gay, Mrs. Ring, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Judge and Mrs. William Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wichman, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes Jr., Mr. Robbin B. Anderson, Mr. George B. Torrey and Admiral and Mrs. Cowles.

Minute Club

The Minute Club was entertained by the Misses Laura and Juliet Atherton yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atherton on King street. The first prize was given to Miss Fanny Hoogs and the consolation, a basket of violets was taken by Miss Jane Winne. Some among those present were, Miss Fanny Hoogs, Miss Jane Winne, Miss Marjorie Gilman, Miss Esther Kopke, Miss Nora Sturgeon, Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Muriel Howatt, Mrs. Frank Hoogs, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Juliet Atherton and others.

Mr. Marston Campbell Entertains

Mr. Marston Campbell, Jr., was host at an enjoyable chowder and moonlight swimming party last evening at Kahala. They were fourteen young people in the party, and they were chaperoned by Mrs. Marston Campbell and Mrs. E. A. Jones. Among those present were: Miss Catherine Jones, Miss Katherine Blake, Miss Helen Jones, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Eloise Wichman, Miss Alice Hoogs, Miss Geraldine Berg, Mr. Kenneth Reidford, Mr. John Gifford, Mr. Robert von Tempky, Mr. Wrenne Timberlake and Mr. Marston Campbell.

Mrs. Chas. Pedersen's Luncheon Last Saturday

Mrs. Chas. Pedersen was hostess at a very pretty Chinese luncheon at her home on Artesian street last Saturday. The rooms were prettily decorated with palms and double hibiscus. The table was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and greens. At the place of each guest was an Hima lei. The place cards were hand-painted and the name of each guest was written in Chinese. Covers were laid for Princess Kalaniano'ole, Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, Mrs. Chas. F. Chillingworth, Mrs. S. G. O. King, Mrs. E. Booth, Mrs. Wm. Lucas, Mrs. W. J. Moody, Mrs. John A. Cummins, Mrs. S. L. Kekumani, Mrs. E. Cederlof, Mrs. James L. Holt, Mrs. Annie Con-

Undressed Dolls

Our first importation of the famous "DRESSER" DOLLS arrived this week. This is the finest doll manufactured in Germany. We have all sizes from 9 inches to 36 inches, also some wonderful character dolls and babies.

Special Prices on Quantities to Society and Fair Committees

Elegant Millinery

We are turning out some very handsome models from our own work-rooms this week—they will be on SPECIAL DISPLAY, MONDAY MORNING.

New "Gage" and "Knox" Models

Butterick
Winter Fashions

Laces and Embroideries

Our extensive purchases of Laces and Embroideries for Fall delivery have now been put into stock. We have a very complete line, including

Macrame, Cluny and Venise Bands, with All-Overs to match

in beautiful quality and design.

Handsome new patterns in Shadow Laces, 27 in. and 45 in. Flouncings on sheer Cambric, Nainsook and Batiste.

REAL LACES--Princess, Cluny, Irish Crochet,
Antique Italian Filet, and Carrick-macross.

Why Look Older Than You Are?

IT IS ASTONISHING how many women through mere lack of attention are wearing corsets that give a more matured appearance to the figure than it should have and consequently they appear to be five to ten years older than they are.

Don't neglect that condition a minute longer—go to our Corset Department, ask a trial fitting of the Fall model of

MODERN CORSETS
"THE MODERN FRONT LACE"

and see for yourself the youthful and graceful lines the famous corset can give you. No expense to you don't buy unless there is a decided improvement—then you should.

N. S. SACHS DRY GOODS CO., LTD.,

November
Delineator